THIS AGREEMENT made in duplicate this ^{15th} day of June 1959.

BETWEEN:

THE UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO, a corporation incorporated by Statute of the Province of Ontario having its head office at the City of Waterloo in the Province of Ontario, hereinafter called the University OF THE FIRST PART

- and -

RENISON COLLEGE, a corporation incorporated under the laws of the Province of Ontario, having its head office at the said City of Waterloo, hereinafter called the College OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS the College, with the full approval, support and interest of The Incorporated Synod of the Diocese of Huron of the Anglican Church of Canada, was incorporated with the object of establishing and maintaining an Anglican College or school of higher education and has petitioned the University for the status of an affiliated College with the understanding that federated status, in the future, shall not be unreasonably withheld.

AND WHEREAS such petition, having received the favorable approval and acceptance of the Boards of Governors of the University, Waterloo Lutheran University and The University of St. Jerome's College, is hereby granted and the parties do enter into these presents to set down their mutual covenants, understandings and arrangements to apply to any future affiliation or federation agreement made on behalf of the University and the College.

NOW THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH

The parties hereto covenant, agree and declare that

1 (a) The College shall have the right to become an affiliated College of the University and shall be known as Renison College.

(b) Upon affiliation of the College with the University, all degree-granting powers which, in the future, may be possessed by the College, except those in Theology, shall be held in abeyance so long as such affiliation remains in force.

(c) The College shall register with the University all students proceeding toward a degree to be granted by the University.

(d) The College shall have jurisdiction over the conduct of its students.

(e) The College shall maintain academic standards in respect to curriculum and faculty as required by the Senate of the University in all courses for which credit is given toward a degree.

(f) The College shall have the right to offer its own courses in Religious Knowledge and the University Senate shall give academic credit for such courses when it is satisfied that academic standards and curricular requirements are maintained.

(g) Subject to satisfactory prearrangements, students of the College shall be admitted to courses offered by the University or by a federated or affiliated College.

(h) Subject to the prior rights of the federated Colleges, the College shall have the right to give instruction in the arts, humanities and social sciences which are part of the University's professional courses.

(i) The College shall make available its faculty and facilities for instruction as the University and Federated Colleges deem economically feasible and practical.

(j) All revenues of mutual concern shall be shared as agreed upon by the Boards of both parties.

(k) All instructional, administrative, maintenance, and other costs as between the College and the University shall be borne or shared as agreed upon by the Boards of both parties.

(l) The College shall have the right to appoint its own teaching staff and administrative officers.

(m) General facilities provided by the University, such as Library, Gymnasium, Convocation Hall, Students' Union Building, etc., with their staffs, shall be available to students and faculty of the College.

(n) The University shall confer degrees, diplomas and other awards upon candidates from the College who meet the curricular requirements as defined by the University Senate.

(o) The University shall make its Science faculty available for the instruction of science subjects which are part of the curriculum offered for an Arts degree.

(p) The University Senate shall approve expansion of curriculum as taught in Renison College only when such expansion has the consent of the Boards of the federated colleges, but such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(q) The University shall allocate and reserve land within its campus (on mutually agreed time limit and terms) on which the College may construct buildings for teaching, administration, students' residences (with or without chapels), subject to the University's approval of architectural design.

(r) The College shall retain as its own property any and all gifts, bequests, devises, scholarships, endowments, or grants of any kind which from time to time may, be made to it.

(s) Any modifications of the University's agreements with other federated or affiliated colleges shall first be discussed with the then federated or affiliated colleges.

2. (a) Amendments to this agreement may be made by mutual consent.

(b) The terms of this agreement shall apply to any future affiliation agreement made between the University and the College, and when the affiliation agreement is completed it may be terminated by either party only after the thirtieth day of June twelve months or more following the date on which either party notifies the other of its desire for termination of the agreement.

WITNESS the Corporate Seals of the parties hereto by their respective proper officers duly authorized in that behalf.
